"I will be their God and they shall be my people." — Jeremiah 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our neighbors and the world, just as God cares for us.

A NOTE FROM FATHER PAT My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"I have come to believe that you are the Christ." I think that these powerful words of testimony by Martha are at the very heart of how we are to believe in Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

Jesus arrives at the home of his good and faithful friends and is met by Martha. She is Lazarus' sister and is in mourning because he has died. She is glad to see Jesus during this very sad time, but there is a part of her that doesn't understand why Jesus didn't come in time to cure her brother. Jesus was the source of hope for so many, and now that his good friends needed his presence, he arrived too late, and so Lazarus has died. Martha and Mary are in mourning.

Jesus questions Martha about the depth of her faith. Even in her distress, she doesn't waver in her belief of Jesus as the Messiah. She answers him, "I have come to believe that you are the Christ." Jesus assures her that her brother will come to life. She presumes that he is speaking about the resurrection of our bodies at the end of the world. Jesus assures her---those who are with them, and us---that something special is now to take place. Jesus has the caretakers open the tomb of a man who has been dead for three days. Jesus commands that he "Come Forth!" An incredible miracle of the authority and power of Jesus---in response to great faith---takes place. Lazarus comes forth from the tomb.

Today is the 5th Sunday of Lent and the Catechumens of our church experience the final Scrutinies, as they listen to this incredible Gospel passage. A great miracle takes place in response to great faith.

I think that we are invited today to consider our own faith response to the Lord. We all know that it is easy to profess faith in Jesus when everything is going along smoothly. It becomes so much more difficult to "stay the course" when we are beset by hardship. Unexpected loss of a loved one, unexpected and even unfair termination of employment, diagnosis of a terminal disease---these are just three examples of the difficult part of the human condition. Like Martha and Mary, when we experience the true hardships of life, we find it difficult to easily give ourselves over in trust to God. Human pain, hurt and anger interfere with our relationship with a loving God. And when we are in the throes of pain, hurt or anger it is often hard for us to see God as loving, compassionate and merciful. The strength and depth of our faith is really tested during the toughest of times.

Shortly after I was ordained to the holy priesthood I was approached by a woman who was in great pain and sadness at the unexpected loss of her son who was barely out of his teen years. It was the 5th Sunday of Lent and, like today, the Gospel was about Lazarus. I'll never forget her anguish as she asked me why Jesus could bring Lazarus back from the dead but didn't save her son. What answer can you give that will mend a broken heart? I didn't have that answer. I don't think anyone does. But I reflect on Martha's response to Jesus, even in her pain, "I have come to believe that you are the Christ."

Today's reading is an invitation to faith in Jesus---Jesus is, indeed, the Christ! Today is a reminder to each of us present here that Jesus doesn't promise us, if we are truly faithful, an easy life devoid of pain. What Jesus promises us if we are truly faithful to him is life eternal!

CHRISM MASS

March 30th - 7:30 P.M. St Francis Cathedral

Bishop Paul G. Bootkoski will celebrate the Chrism Mass with the Priests of the Diocese. The Bishop blesses the Holy Oils each parish receives for the rites of the anointing. The Oil of Catechumens is used to anoint the chest of infants and hands of adults before their Baptism; the Oil of the Sick is used on the forehead and hands of the infirm in the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick; and Sacred Chrism is used to anoint the head of the newly baptized, the foreheads of the confirmandi, the hands of a priest at his ordination, the head of a bishop at his ordination, and the altar and walls of new churches. At this Mass all Priests make a renewal of commitment to Priestly Service, recommitting themselves to their Bishop and to ministry to God and His people; the Bishop and all priests then ask the people for a pledge of their prayerful support. All are strongly encouraged to join this ancient, grace-filled Chrism Mass.
